MICHAEL W. DORRIS
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

During the early part of 2007 the County was experiencing a budget cuts Around 5 to 6 months the County didn't have a dentist or a eye doctor in the Jail. Delay in provided prescription medications once it was prescribed by a doctor.
Sometime the Jail don't provide the medicine at all.

The budget cut resulted into firing various Jail administrators and doctors, which exacerbated these problems and further endangered the health and safety and lives of all detainees in the Cook County Jail. This kind of inadequate services is unconstitutional which amount to deliberate indifference.

I suffered from a toothache and infection gum and it took me around 3 to 4 months to see a dentist. Despite, submitted numerous medical request forms, Complain to the officials, and filed several grievances and appeals.

Plaintiff Bobby Lee Harrison, do declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my ability
